Dear

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act (2002).

I now respond to your request as follows:

“Q1. Please can you advise if the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance Definition of Antisemitism (‘IHRA Definition’) including all of its examples has been adopted by the College?” sic

No.

“Q2. If the answer to Q1 is yes, please confirm the date this was adopted?” sic

N/A.

“Q2. If the answer to Q1 is yes, please confirm if any further motions amending or rejecting adoption have since been passed or defeated?” sic

N/A.

“Q3. If your answer to Q2 is yes, please kindly confirm what, if anything was amended, the date of such amendment/rejection and provide a copy/working link to the motion/minutes amending or rejecting adoption.” Sic

N/A.

I trust the above response meets your request for information in full.

Should you be unhappy with the College’s response you may seek a review, by writing to Derek Smeall, Principal. Your grounds for seeking a review should be included in your request.

I also wish to advise you that the Scottish Information Commissioner has launched an online appeals service via their website – the link is as follows:
