Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request for information under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act (2002).

I now respond to your request as follows:

*“Please provide us with details of how many students undertake your HND Coaching and Development (Football) course each year since the course began.
Please provide us with the number of courses ran in this subject (HND Coaching and Development (Football)) each year.
Please provide us with the number of places available on this course (HND Coaching and Development (Football)) each year.
Please provide us with the entry requirements for this course (HND Coaching and Development (Football)).
Please provide us with any statistics held in relation to employment of students following successfully completing this course (HND Coaching and Development (Football)).
Please provide us with any statistics held in relation to employment of students following successfully completing any sport related course.”*

Please refer to the attached enclosure.

I trust the above response meets your request for information in full.

Should you be unhappy with the College’s response you may seek a review, by writing to Derek Smeall, Principal. Your grounds for seeking a review should be included in your request.

I also wish to advise you that the Scottish Information Commissioner has launched an online appeals service via their website – the link is as follows:
